KARLUP-ATWELL CERAMICS STUDIO OFFICIAL OPENING CEREMONY

The official handover of Karlup Ceramics Studio for occupancy by the Club happened on Wednesday, September 14th. The official opening by the Deputy Mayor of the City of Melville will be held on Friday, October 21st to coincide with the opening of our Glorious Mud exhibition. All SORPC club members are invited and are requested to RSVP to the CoM at:
community.development@melville.wa.gov.au

The first major event to be held at Karlup was the AGM of the Ceramic Arts Association of WA – CAAWA. A large crowd of Perth based potters came along to check out the new studio and to enjoy highly interesting presentations about overseas ceramics experiences from Bernark Kerr and Andrea Vinkovic.

MEMBERS' STUDIO INDUCTION

Most members have now attended one of the orientation sessions for the Karlup Ceramics Studio and received their access codes for the security system. Another session will be planned for those who were unable to make it to the first two and Cezarne will publicise the new date when it is finalised.

---

CERAMICS WORKSHOPS

---

The ceramics workshops have been a great success and a lot of fun. Cher Shackleton presented a great demonstration workshop and tackled a wide range of techniques and tips for the wheel.

Robert, Felicity and Robyn have all held highly enjoyable and productive workshops and the Maiolica demo/workshop by Cate Cosi is coming up soon.

GLORIOUS MUD 2022

The Club's annual selective exhibition 'Glorious Mud' is happening in two short weeks. The Club kilns are up and running so members have the opportunity to get last minute entries fired. Entry forms have been circulated by Judy MacCallum who is coordinating the exhibition and they should be returned with the entry fee by Monday, October 10th.

You have also received an email with the poster attached so that you can print it and distribute it to your friends, local library or wherever you think it will attract interest. And don't forget to respond to Judy's request for help on the gallery roster and setup and cleanup of the exhibition.

Works are to be delivered to Atwell Gallery on Wednesday 19 October 10am -12pm and the exhibition will officially open on Friday October 21st, immediately after the opening of the Karlup Studio..

The Glorious Mud exhibition attracts a lot of attention from the Perth ceramics community so join in and let them see what a great variety of talent we have in our Club!

CLASSES

Peggy has organised a great program of ceramics classes for Term 4 (October-December). These will be open to everyone but SORPC members get discounted fees. Places are still available in Stewart Scambler's class. His Fremantle Arts Centre classes are fully booked so take advantage of this opportunity.

Robert Hawes' class is fully booked. Shupiwe Chongwe's handbuilding and wheelwork and Elaine Bradley's slip casting and mould making workshops are being re-scheduled to Term 1 in the new year.

Updated details and booking links are published on the website: <https://sorpottersclub.com/classes>

CAAWA SELECTIVE EXHIBITION

The CAAWA annual selective exhibition is currently showing in the gallery at North Metro TAFE in James Street. Several SORPC members are exhibiting and Felicity Bodycoat received a special mention at the opening night.
